Whereas, in January, 1845, a judgment was obtained in the District Court of the United States, for the Eastern District of Louisiana, against Elijah Taylor, master of the Schooner Seminole, for the sum of one thousand dollars, with interest, in consequence of said vessel's having violated the 9th Section of the act of 2nd March, 1807, "To prohibit the importation of Slaves" &c. and whereas, it has been satisfactorily made to appear that the violation of the law by Captain Taylor, was unintentional, and without any wilful, or fraudulent intent to evade the same.

Now, therefore, I, James K. Polk, President of the United States of America, in consideration of the premises — divers other good and sufficient reasons me thereunto moving, have remitted, and do hereby remit the fine and penalties incurred as aforesaid, upon the payment of costs.—
